ACTIVE & PASSIVE VOICE: IDENTIFYING VOICE

Grammar Review #4

Directions: This excerpt from Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire refers to an official report. If an underlined verb is active, write A, and if a verb is passive, write P.

REMEMBER: A SENTENCE CAN HAVE A HELPING VERB AND NOT BE PASSIVE!!!!

The police [1] were summoned, and the whole of Little Hangleton had seethed with shocked curiosity and ill-disgusted excitement.

The police had never read an odder report. A team of doctors [2] had examined the bodies and [3] had concluded that none of the Riddles [4] had been poisoned, stabbed, shot, strangled, suffocated, or (as far as they could tell) harmed at all. In fact (the report [5] continued, in a tone of unmistakable bewilderment), the Riddles all appeared to be in perfect health—apart from the fact that they [6] were all dead.

As there was no proof that the Riddles [7] had been murdered at all, the police [8] were forced to let Frank go. The Riddles [9] were buried in the Little Hangleton churchyard, and their graves [10] remained objects of curiosity for a while.
